

RESOLUTION 1974-3

A RESOLUTION TO EXEMPT THE GOVERNMENT OF WEAKLEY COUNTY FROM THE PROVISIONS OF THE TENNESSEE GOVERNMENTAL TORT LIABILITY ACT OF 1973

WHEREAS: The 88th General Assembly did in its 1974 session pass an act known as the "Tennessee Governmental Tort Liability Act" and;

WHEREAS: This act removes governmental immunity for a number of torts in which counties or their employees might be involved, and;

WHEREAS: At this date, insufficient data to determine cost to the county and a lack of satisfactory insurance programs make it impossible to determine the total effect on county finances, and;

WHEREAS: The "Tennessee Governmental Tort Liability Act" becomes effective for this county on January 1, 1974, unless the Quarterly Court takes action to exempt itself from the provisions of the act:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Weakley County Court sitting in regular business session this 14th day of January, 1974, that, pursuant to chapter 345 of the Public Acts of Tennessee as passed by the 1973 session of the 88th General Assembly, the government of Weakley County is declared to be exempt from any and all provisions of the "Tennessee Governmental Tort

Liability Act" and elects to remain under the provisions of the following listed sections of the Tennessee Code Annotated: 6-1003, 6-1012, 6-640, and 6-641.

Motion was made by Esq. E. L. Lemonds and seconded by Esq. Viron Beard that the foregoing Resolution be adopted by the Court. Upon being put to a voice vote, same carried unanimously.
