

WHEREAS, the County Judges who are the fiscal officers of their respective Counties have seen fit to organize into an Association of County Judges in the State of Tennessee to discuss their mutual local and state problems; and,

WHEREAS, there exists so many related functions between the respective Counties and that the state, ie; The sharing of the expenses for criminal prosecutions and its costs, the equalization of property for taxation, the distribution of numerous taxes apportioned between the state, the counties and cities (gas tax, income tax, alcohol tax, and sales tax), and also the issuance of County Bonds under Chap. 300 Acts of 1937; and,

WHEREAS, John F. Nolan, Economist on State and Local Government, whose office is in Nashville, has served the State of Tennessee for many years as Bookkeeper, Accountant, Chief Clerk to the Comptroller of the Treasury, as State Treasurer served on State Board of Equalization, as Auditor, and as Director of Accounts; is acquainted with and has directed many of the State functions enumerated herein on behalf of the State as they relate to the Counties and Local Government; has offered to serve each County in such manner as the County Judge may direct, to the end, that this County may avail itself of his services as Agent in looking after and following through to a just and fair participation in the above stated functions; and to prepare monthly reports to the County Judge of all monies due from the State and payable to this County in order that the County Trustee may be properly charged with all such funds:

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the regular term of the Quarterly Court of Weakley County, this 4th day of October, 1948, that we hereby authorize the County Judge who is vested with the authority in the General Laws and more especially under Section 739 to 700 of the Code to avail this County of the services as Agent of the said John F. Nolan, Economist on State and Local Government, who maintains his office in Nashville, and to authorize the payment of $125.00 to him per year; payable quarterly.

This is to certify the above resolution was adopted by the Quarterly County Court of WEAKLEY County, on the 4th day of October, 1948

Shobe Smith, Jr.

Shobe Smith, Jr.,
County Court Clerk