

The following resolution of respect was presented to he Court:

COUNTY COURT RESOLUTION

Whereas, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has called Honorable J. Martin Adams of Martin, Weakley County, Tennessee, to his final resting place; and

Whereas, the Honorable J. Martin Adams was a respected member of this Court for a long number of years, having served on many and various committees, one of them being the committee to erect the new Courthouse, in which we are now assembled, he was an active leader in his church, community and the County, beloved by all who knew him; and

Whereas, the passing from this life of the Honorable J. Martin Adams, brings a touch of sadness to this Court and to Weakley County;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Quarterly County Court at its regular meeting on April, 5th, 1954, that it extend to the bereaved widow, his immediate family and all those near and dear to him our sincerest regrets and sympathy.

Be it further solved, that this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this Court and the clerk of said Court be directed to forward a copy of same to the family of the deceased.
