COLLECTION OF MERCHANTS AD VALOREM TAX FROM THE OFFICE OF COUNTY COURT CLERK TO THE OFFICE OF THE COUNTY TRUSTEE

< RESOLUTION

RESOLUTION by the Quarterly County Court of Weakley County, Tennessee, authorizing the transfer of the duty and responsibility of the collection of Merchants Ad Valorem tax from the office of County Court Clerk to the office of the County Trustee.

WHEREAS, recent legislation by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee has transferred the assessment of Merchants Ad Valorem tax to the Assessor of Property of the various counties to become effective September 1, 1970 and thereafter; and

WHEREAS, it is already the duty of the County Trustee to collect all Personal Property, Real Estate and Ad Valorem tax that is assessed by the said Assessor of Property except the Merchants Ad Valorem tax; and

WHEREAS: IT appears that it would be more expedient to have all such collections done in one and the same office in order to minimize omissions, double assessments and errors; and

WHEREAS, the statutes provide for the transfer of the duties of collection of this tax to the office of the County Trustee.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that all of the duties as outlined in Title 67 Chapter 47 of the Tennessee Code Annotated and any other duties that are set out in any other section of the Tennessee Code Annotated as duties of the County Court Clerk having to do with the Collection of past due or due Merchants Ad Valorem tax be transferred to the office of County Trustee and become the duties of the Trustee instead of the County Court Clerk.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this transfer of duties shall become effective not later than the 31st. day of December, 1970, but may be done at the discretion of the County Judge if, in his opinion an earlier date would be more advantageous toward effecting a more efficient or convenient transfer of the operation.
