IV. NEW BUSINESS

Discussion Regarding Approval of Caution Related Road Signs:

Chairperson Westbrook recognized Weakley County Road Supervisor, Jeff Cosby. Highway Supervisor Cosby spoke with CTAS who advised there could be a liability to put up the signs as well as a liability to not put up the signs. CTAS suggested Highway Supervisor Cosby get in touch with the Weakley County Sheriff to identify areas that could be a potential danger to drivers and individuals who are riding with a horse drawn carriage. Highway Supervisor Cosby has also been asked to erect caution signs in the Pillowville area. Chairperson Westbrook recognized Weakley County Mayor Dale Hutcherson. Mayor Hutcherson advised the community need outweighs the liability risk to the county. Commissioner Doster made a motion to allow Highway Supervisor Cosby to erect the caution road signs for horse draw buggies. Commissioner Usery seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

VI. ADJOURN

Seeing no other business, Commissioner Donaldson made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Commissioner Freeman seconded, and the meeting was adjourned at 4:50 p.m.
